THE TRAP REVEALS TWO AMERICANS, ALSO HELD PRISONERS, BELOW ME.

The air thrilled with the throbbing of the old church organ:
"Peace on Earth (Good Wil to Men!"
It was Christman Day! When had I fallen asleep! I did not know, buil I realized perfectly that I had been abut up in the secret chamber for more than three days! It had been on the Monday before Christmas that I had set out to locate Donna Camilla with such unfortunate success.

Felt very weak and faint. I had to remind myself that if the four tupy fountains in the corners kept right playing—and if I didn't get too tired of the dist they afforded—I would probably surrout the full forty days—"and only 37 days remain," I murmured to get too tired of the diet they afforded—I would probably survive the full forty days—"and only 37 days remain," I murmured to myself.

"Peace on Earth! Good Will to Men!"

If I could hear the organ, I ought to be able to make the organist hear me. I reasoned, that is, after the joyous Christmas music had ebbed away. Then I realized that the width of the chapel separated my prison from the church staff. To be sure, the room I was in opened off from the chapel, but it was, in reality, built into aneient dwelling house. It was not a part of the church structure at all.

I was not a part of the church structure at all.

The staff of the staff of the staff of the church structure at all.

As would take care not to show herself to Dr. Certeis. Only the servants would see her. They obeyed her like slaves. As soon as hee came back, I would be released. If she did not return, I would need all my energy to last out the fatal 37 days after Christmas:

"Halleighai! Halleighai!" praided the distant organ.

"Nice peaceful Christmas you've managed to fix up for your devoted frauly, Jane Lorimer!" Thus I soolded myself. "At last yon've found a place where you can't make anything happen! Wen might as well be in your grave!"

But the most astonishing thing did happen, then and there. From beneath my feet; a magnificant bass. woice ecloed the last organism of the promotion of the control of the control of the care to the hollow spot in the middle of the room and rolled up the carepte until the early under its middle was revealed. I looked down into darkness.

"Peace on Earth." I sang sorfly.

The voice had stopped.

"My God! A girl!" came a voice out of the darkness.

was revealed. Hoosed own monutaness.
"Peace on Earth," I sam sortiy.

The voice had stopped.

The voice had stopped.

The voice had stopped.

"Or an angel!" said a second voice. It had an eastern regard for broad vowels, I noticed.

"Are you—a prisoner—fool" asked the first man
"Yes—I-m—I'm practically dead and buried," I stammered.
"It's my own fault, though."

"Well, you can bet it isn't our fault that we're in the same fix. I suppose—if you can't save yourself, you can't save us!"
I liked that voice. It was fine American product, business-like
"Maybe we could help sach other," I suggested. By this time I was able to see two dark forms in the shaft of light which fell through my floor and made a din tunnel in the blackness below me.
